

Financial Remedies

Our family law finance provision barristers have a distinguished history of providing advice and advocacy in financial disputes for all sectors of society, in all levels of court, in London and throughout England and Wales.

'4PB is a fabulous set with the team of strong financial practitioners.'

Legal 500, 2023

Our expert family law barristers provide:

- Advice, written and in person
- Representation and advocacy in court
- Mediation
- Collaborative Law
- Early neutral evaluation (private FDR)
- Arbitration

on all family law financial dispute resolution issues arising from the end of a personal relationship, whether through divorce, dissolution, separation, children's needs, or the death of a spouse or partner.

Our barristers are known for their 'holistic' approach to family law, their commercial, straightforward advice, and their powerful advocacy.

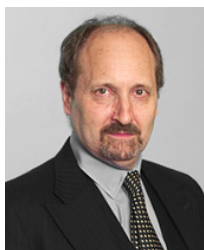

We have a proven track record in acting in family law financial disputes involving high net worth and international individuals, disputes involving offshore assets, family trusts, complex tax structures, private and publicly listed companies, limited liability partnerships, landed estates, inherited and pre-acquired assets, and pre-marital agreements.

In cases of emergency where assets are at immediate risk, our family barristers can provide urgent advice, action or advocacy to secure appropriate orders and prevent financial loss. Please contact the senior Practice Manager, Michael Reeves, on 0207 427 5200 for immediate assistance.
