

Children: Public Law Update (September 2015)

An update for Family Law Week

2nd September 2015

Barristers

John Tughan KC

In this update John Tughan QC considers the following:

- recent authorities on the issue of whether to make adoption orders when there is a natural family member available and the child is placed for adoption;
- the President's recent guidance on the adoption of children who are foreign nationals but habitually resident in the UK;
- the President's recent decision on the provision of legal aid where the care proceedings had been re-opened;
- guidance on the revocation of adoption orders; and
- a case on who should pay for the translation of documents.

To read the full article click here

Author

John Tughan KC

Source

Family Law Week