

European Court of Human Rights

28th April 2015

Henry Setright QC and Michael Gration represent the successful applicant in the European Court of Human Rights.

Henry Setright QC and Michael Gration (instructed by Dawson Cornwell) represented a father in his application to the ECHR following 1980 Hague Convention proceedings in Romania (CASE OF FERRARI v. ROMANIA, (Application no. 1714/10)). The judgment was handed down today can be read here.

The ECHR found a breach of the father's Article 8 rights and awarded him 7,500Euros in respect of non-pecuniary damages.