

Re Y (A Child) (2016)

[2016] EWCA Civ 1349

06/12/2016

Barristers

Jane Rayson

Court

Court of Appeal

Practice Areas

Public Children Law

A judge making care and placement orders in respect of a two-year-old child had not had the necessary expert evidence assessing the mother's ability to provide long-term care with support, despite her learning disabilities. The orders were set aside and the case remitted for case management to enable the necessary evidence to be obtained.

Permission

