

Review of possible surrogacy law reform in England & Wales

30th March 2020

In a two part series Dorothea Gartland writes for EPrivate Client, a publication aimed at top professional advisers, on the Government's consultation and possible law reform of surrogacy law in England & Wales. Looking at parentage from birth to the prohibitions on surrogacy advertising, the reforms provide hope of real change and a legal system which reflects modern society in this area.

To read the articles in full click here: 4PB - EPrivateClient - Surrogacy Part 1 & 2