

Diplomatic Immunity and Care Proceedings to be considered by the Divisional Court.

1st March 2021

Prof Jo Delahunty, Chris Barnes, and Lucy Logan Green, along with Prof Antonios Tzanakopoulos, Associate Professor of International Law, University of Oxford Faculty of Law and Fellow in Law, St Anne's College, are appearing before the Divisional Court, on 2nd and 3rd March 2021, in a case considering an application for a declaration of incompatibility concerning the immunity provisions of the Diplomatic Privileges Act 1964 which implements the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations.

The hearing, before the President of the Family Division and Sir Duncan Ouseley, arises in proceedings which have previously been reported considering the impact of diplomatic immunity in the context of applications under Part IV of the Children Act 1989 (see [A Local Authority v AG \[2020\] EWFC 18](#) and [A Local Authority v AG \(No. 2\) \[2020\] EWHC 1346 \(Fam\)](#)).

Jo, Chris, and Lucy act on the instructions of Deborah Marsden, of Creighton & Partners Solicitors, and represent the child who participates in proceedings in her own right as the 2nd respondent.

The matter is listed to take place in open court and is accessible to those wishing to observe who can find further information at the following link which will also provide details of the listing: High Court Hearing List.
