Profile

Nadia is barrister specialising in family law. She joined Chambers as a tenant in October 2023 following successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Andrew Powell, Francesca Dowse, Jonathan Evans and Michael Edwards.

Nadia enjoys a busy practice across all of Chambers' specialisms, appearing at all levels of the family court, including the Court of Appeal where she has been led by Jacqueline Renton.

Nadia is regularly instructed at all stages of complex private law matters, including those with serious allegations of domestic abuse and complex factual disputes. . Nadia represents clients in all areas of private law, including applications for child arrangements orders, prohibited steps orders, injunctive relief and internal leave to remove applications.

Nadia's growing international practice involves international child abduction (both Hague and non-Hague), relocation, jurisdictional disputes, parental responsibility, and international contact disputes.

Nadia represents clients at all stages of financial remedy proceedings involving a range of issues, including material non-disclosure, conduct and annulment.

Nadia has a busy care practice, representing local authorities, parents and children at all stages of care proceedings. She has assisted in training expert witnesses at the Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health.

Prior to commencing pupillage in October 2022, Nadia spent time as a paralegal at Withers LLP and at Sears Tooth assisting partners and associates with complex financial remedy and private law cases.

In her free time, Nadia enjoys walking, cooking and watching Liverpool FC.
