Barbara Mills KC, Cleo Perry KC and Mani Singh Basi speak at the White Paper Conference.

30th November 2022

Barbara Mills KC, Cleo Perry KC and Mani Singh Basi join a highly respected panel of speakers at the Caledonian Club today for the White Paper Conference, 'Private Children Law & Practice: Shaping New Developments into Solution-Focused Answers for Your Clients'.

Both Barbara Mills KC and Mani Singh Basi talk to 'Fact-finding'.

In the light of recent cases, how do you evidence the necessity for a fact-finding hearing and what evidence will sway the Court's decision?

Barbara is "an ideal children specialist barrister – unflappable, incisive and with a real gift for engaging with her clients." She is co-editor of the International Family Law Journal. Mani has a stellar reputation for his private children law practice, frequently acting in contentious residence and contact disputes and disputes involving parental alienation.

Cleo Perry KC talks to 'Hostile Carers'

How do you contend with implacably hostile carers that are frustrating contact, supported by caselaw and practical examples?

Cleo is "absolutely spectacular for children law cases." "Her advice is clear and practical and she achieves results that are going to be workable and meaningful." "Judges listen to her every word."
