

4PB records its best ever year in the newly published Legal 500 2025 Guide.

3rd October 2024

4PB is delighted to record its best ever year in the newly published Legal 500 2025 Guide.

Underpinning our position as the number 1 set for children law, we were again ranked in the top tier in their London Family: children and domestic abuse category (marking an unparalleled 13 consecutive years as a tier 1 children law set), with a record 21 silks and 38 juniors individually ranked and with the guide hailing us as “a brilliant set across the board – top choice for children law matters.”

Described by the guide as “a set with top-class counsel at all levels in matrimonial finance work”, we were again ranked as one of the top 5 sets in the London Family: divorce and financial remedy category, with our best ever showing of individual rankings in that field.

Reflecting the excellence and strength in depth we have throughout 4PB in all areas of family law, we have a record 64 individual recommendations, over two-thirds of chambers, with 14 new entrants in this year's guide.

Huge congratulations to all our barristers who have been ranked, newly ranked and promoted this year and even bigger thanks to our referees for their continued support.
